

lor of the said University, and shall also elect some suitable person as secretary of the board, thirteen regents shall constitute a quorum, for the transaction of all the business of the board, except the removal from office of the president of said University, or of one of the regents of the University, or the repealing, modifying, or suspending of the laws, rules and regulations made by the faculty of the said University, and the said regents by a vote of three-fourths of the whole board of regents, shall have power for cause by them deem sufficient, to be expressed in the vote to remove by resolution the president of the said University, or any one of the regents from office; provided however, that no vote shall be taken on any such resolution for removal, until reasonable notice thereof shall have been given to the party to be affected thereby, and an opportunity afforded to him to make his defence, the said regents shall have power to make and ordain such regulations and by-laws, as they shall find necessary for the management of the affairs of the said corporation, and the execution of the trust to them committed.

CHAP. 272.

Proviso.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the said regents and their successors, shall be and remain a corporation and body politic, by the said name of the Newton University, and shall and may at all times hereafter be capable in law to have, hold, receive, take and retain to them and their successors forever, for the use and benefit of the said University, property real, personal and mixed by purchase, gift, grant, devise, bequest of, and from any person or persons, bodies, corporate and politic, capable in law of making the same; provided always, that the amount thereof shall be so limited, as that the annual income thereof to the said University, shall not at any time exceed the sum of twelve thousand dollars.

Corporation and body politic.

Proviso.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That upon the death, resignation or removal from office of the president of the said University, his successor shall be appointed by the board of regents.

Successor to be appointed by regents.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the president and professors of the said University, shall constitute the faculty thereof, and shall have and exercise the government thereof with the care and management of all matters and affairs belonging thereto, and shall have power to make and establish all such reasonable and proper laws, rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the laws and constitution of this State, or of the United States, as may be necessary for the government, instruction and education

President and Professors to constitute Faculty.